*Happy
Birthday
America!*

Can you believe the time has come
To send good wishes, my friend
The year's just flying by...
It's Fourth of July again!

This greeting is our tradition
We're proud to duplicate
Our country's another year older
It's time to celebrate!
(Heads are rolling at Hallmark right now...)

So raise the Flag and make a toast
To the future of our great nation
Cherish the spirit of America...
The people, the heritage, the Declaration!

Today we count our many blessings
In a quiet moment or two
Good health, much love, a loyal kitty
And family and friends like you!

Let us know how you're doing
As we reach our festive day
Have a safe and glorious Fourth...
A Happy Independence Day!

"I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illumination, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forevermore.

You will think me transported with enthusiasm, but I am not. I am well aware of the toil and blood and treasure that it will cost us to maintain this Declaration and support and defend these States. Yet, through all the gloom, I can see the rays of ravishing light and glory. I can see that the end is more than worth all the means. And that posterity will triumph..."
