"I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illumination, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forevermore.

You will think me transported with enthusiasm, but I am not. I am well aware of the toil and blood and treasure that it will cost us to maintain this Declaration and support and defend these States. Yet, through all the gloom, I can see the rays of ravishing light and glory. I can see that the end is more than worth all the means. And that posterity will triumph..."

Greetings & Happy Birthday
we say again this year
Our country's special day is drawing very near!

The year's gone so fast
our toddler keeps us busy She's made our life a blast quite frankly, a little dizzy!

We take her everywhere
she's such a little trouper
As Barney® would declare,
"She's Super-Dee-Duper!"
(Yes, we've succumbed to that purple monster)

So on this day of pride and historic commemoration
We hope you fully imbibe
a festive celebration!

And don't be quiet or bland on our collective birthday Take a patriotic stand and Have a Happy Independence Day!
